

Sermon Notes

Summary:

American culture and sometimes Christian culture confuses boldness with brashness. God has called us to be bold and fearless not insolent. In this passage, we are called along with Timothy to re-ignite a holy boldness for the glory of Jesus.

1. We are empowered to live boldly in love and suffering vs. 6-8
2. We are empowered to live boldly with a holy calling vs. 9-10
3. We are empowered to live boldly because of whom we know vs. 12
4. We are empowered by the Holy Spirit to live boldly in the faith and love of Jesus vs. 13-14

PRAYER AND PRAISE

- Pray for Leon & Naomi Zimmerman.
- Continue to pray for Bill Miller and his family as he comes home from Hickory House on hospice care.
- Pray for Chris Rechenberg and his mother, Patricia.
- Pray for the Search Committee as they discern next steps.

NOTES

Thank you to everyone who helped with yesterday's Church Clean up Day!

Join us today for our first picnic Sunday. Weather permitting, the last Sunday of the months of May, June, July, and August pack a picnic lunch for your family, grab some lawn chairs or a blanket and join us on the back lawn after services. The church bathrooms will be available during this time.

This summer we are experimenting with a shorter Sunday School hour to help the children's teachers. During June, July, and August, Sunday School will start at 9:45 and end at 10:15. Our main service start time will remain unchanged at 10:30.

Officer nominations for the upcoming year beginning September 2026, can be submitted until June 7. Forms are in the foyer. Members 15 years and over can fill out forms and return them to the box. The current officer list is provided as well.
